

WHO WAS DR JOHN MORE? - AUTHOR'S NOTE

Richard H. Turner lives at Wingerworth near Chesterfield. He has Master's degrees from Oxford and London universities, the former being in Modern History. His professional career was mainly spent in human resources and industrial relations management. Since retirement from full-time employment he has become interested in recusant history, and is a member of several relevant societies.

His previous papers are:

The Treasure House of Chesterfield Parish Church 1953

The 1818-1839 (incomplete) Register of the Roman Catholic Mission based at Wingerworth, Derbyshire - in Sheffield Archives, 1989/75, Box 9, 1988

The 1737-1755 Register of the Mission at Wingerworth, Derbyshire
- Midland Catholic History no. 10, 2004

Clergy Funds and Episcopal Control—was John Stanford maligned?
- Recusant History, vol.27/1, May 2004

Church of The Annunciation, Chesterfield: A Celebration of 150 Years, 1854-2004
(co-author) Sept. 2004

'A More Unobserved and Convenient Location': A Derbyshire School Reopened
- Recusant History, vol.29/2, Oct. 2008